Get off the beaten track and turn the world into your own adventure playground! Thanks to the Tern "Orox S12", there are no more limits to your wanderlust. The "Orox S12" is the entry-level model into the new world of Tern and in many respects a truly exceptional piece. Normally, cargo bikes are designed to transport heavy loads in urban traffic and are not developed for hardeners outdoor use. But the Orox combines off-road capability with the ability to handle heavy riders and/or loads. The components are selected according to the application and offer you practical help for all off-road possibilities. But the e-bike is also a loyal companion in the city. With the "Deore XT" 12-speed derailleur gears, you can change gear smoothly even under full load. The maximum load capacity is divided into two categories: In off-road use, the "Orox R14" has a total capacity of 180 kg. Even more on the road - a maximum of 210 kg is permitted here. Add to this an 800 Wh Battery and the Bosch "Performance CX" mid-motor and you're ready for the big adventure.
