

BASIL Rain Trousers "Skane Women"

size L, jet black

RRP: €99.99

For professional commutersBASIL has developed the "Skane Women" bike rain trousers especially for female cyclists who commute to work by bike every day. The sporty and practical trousers are waterproof, windproof, breathable, comfortable and available in various paints. The fabrics are manufactured in accordance with the Bluesign standard. With their two-way stretch material and ergonomic seams at the knees, the "Skane Women" offer a comfortable fit, while the adjustable waistband with additional drawstring and adjustable trouser legs with Velcro fasteners also contribute to the perfect fit. What's more, the rain trousers can be put on and taken off quickly and easily thanks to the almost full-length side zipper. The BASIL "Skane" masters its main task, rain protection, with flying colors: its T-Fabric fabric has a water column value of 10,000 WP, more than enough for heavy downpours. The fabric also keeps the wind out and is good at wicking moisture away to the outside (10,000 MVP). On the outside, color-coordinated reflective zones on the front and back ensure visibility in the dark. The suspension eyelet is practical for drying, while the integrated inner pocket proves its worth in everyday commuting.
