

AXA Folding Lock "800"

dark grey

RRP: €70.95

Flexible and secure protection against thievesThe "800" foldable locks from AXA can be operated with a single key and are suitable for all types of bicycles.Made from hardened steel, the lock is easy to operate thanks to several pivot points. The bar has a diameter of 8 mm. As the foldable locks have a total length of 100 cm, the bike can be secured to a fixed object.The cylinder is protected from moisture and dirt by a cover, which extends the life of the lock.In addition, the international online key service allows you to order a spare key at any time.The foldable lock is encased in a neoprene cover in dark grey. It is easy to transport with its attractive Bracket.
