350ml

RRP: €16.95

Thinking around the cornerThe BALLISTOL Universal Oil "Vario Flex Spray" is the all-rounder among care products. It is used as anti-rust protection, Lubricating Oil, care and detergents and has shone with many excellent properties for more than 115 years.In the course of continuously developing and improving products, BALLISTOL has literally thought outside the box. The innovative "Vario Flex Spray" has a flexible spray hose that can be bent individually to reach every hidden corner.The VarioFlex spray head offers you many advantages: Variable: it has never been easier to switch from an area jet (spray) to a spot jet (stream). The capillary hose can be folded down with a quick flick of the wrist and an even spray pattern covers surfaces with Universal Oil. The spray head can be switched to a spot jet just as quickly to apply individual spots.Flexible: The capillary tube has been turned into a capillary hose with a memory effect. Simply bend the tube and you can reach remote corners and nooks. Economical: The large release surface makes it easy to dispense, even when wearing gloves. Precise, as much as necessary and still the proven Ballistol effect. With us, a little goes a long way. BALLISTOL Universal Oil "Vario Flex Spray is extremely creeping, lubricating, non-resinous, completely biodegradable, food-safe, skin-friendly, environmentally friendly and has a disinfectant effect.There are many practical applications and new ones are constantly being discovered. You too can benefit from the advantages of the original BALLISTOL "Universal Oil".
