23-622 (700 x 23C), 290g

Price: €27.50

On alligator skin through the urban jungleThe treads of the Gatorskin tires are designed like the skin of an alligator. This makes it the perfect choice for everyday racers racing through the urban jungle. With this model, CONTINENTAL has the ideal tire for commuters and single speed bikes in its portfolio. The puncture-resistant PolyX Breaker offers increased puncture protection and sits directly under the tread. The DuraSkin protection provides reliable sidewall protection against kerbs and other urban hazards. The Gatorskin is handmade in Germany and impresses not least with its long service life.
