

fi'zi:k Saddle "Tempo Argo R3"

(LxW): 260 x 160mm, black, 235g

Price: €91.00

The Fizik "Tempo Argo R3" Saddle is an excellent choice for road cyclists who are looking for comfort and functionality. With a length of 260 mm and a frame diameter of 7 x 7 mm, it offers an optimum fit for different riding styles. The black nylon and polyurethane saddles are not only attractive but also durable. The well-designed cut-out and lowering contribute to effective pressure distribution and provide additional comfort during longer rides. The Kium frame provides stability and reduces the overall weight, while the nylon and carbon scarves ensure high resistance. The design without suspension enables direct power transmission, which is an advantage for racers. The patented seat post mount makes installation extremely easy. The unisex design of the Fizik "Tempo Argo R3" saddle appeals to both male and female cyclists and meets the high demands of a modern product.
