

CONTEC Saddle "Aerobic"

unisex, size L, black / red

RRP €49.95

The comfortable with e-bike technologyA comfortable and well thought out bicycle saddle is essential for a pleasant cycling tour that is fun. With the "Aerobic" saddle from CONTEC you've found one. It has a core made of a light and comfortable padding mix (AirMatrix). In addition, it scores points with its very flexible shell made of nylon fibre and plastic. Those who like to ride with an e-bike or pedelec, can especially look forward to this saddle. Here, you benefit from the rear recessed handle underneath. Thanks to this, often very heavy e-bikes can be lifted more easily. In order to reduce the pressure, this bicycle saddle has a so-called Touring Zone. This is the lowered middle section, which provides relief. In addition, the "Aerobic" has a synthetic double leather cover. It also has a steel frame with scale. The bicycle saddle "Aerobic" from CONTEC is the right choice for comfortable tours, especially on an e-bike. With it, you can head out for a ride comfortably and carefree.
