

SRAM Crank Spider "AXS"

107mm circle diameter, suitable for Red AXs and Force AXS

Price: €288.20

Powerful measurement technology for powerful performance! Increase your performance and measure it at the same time - the QUARQ "AXS" Crank Spider with integrated Crank Spider Powermeter does it for you. The proven measuring technology is suitable for the "Force AXS" 12-speed crank and fits beautifully into the DUB crank shafts. The power is measured on the left crank arm, which you can evaluate in the "AXS" app after the race or training ride. All eight hexagon socket T20 Screws required for installation are included in the scope of delivery.
