Many options for short distances With the "Touring", Excelsior has a bike in its range that offers a lot to the typical short-distance rider in the city. But the bike also cuts a fine figure on country tours - the steel frame is designed for touring, but with the usual upright riding position. When it comes to gears, you have the choice: the "Touring" is available either with the proven 3-speed Shimano "Nexus" or as a purist singlespeed version with just one gear - in both cases with classic coaster. If you like to ride your bike a little faster and with direct feedback, the 1-speed Hub is the right choice. The 3-speed version is better suited to the classic riding experience. Overall, the "Touring" is equipped to make your everyday cycling life easier. This includes a spacious Carrier, which offers plenty of space for shopping or a picnic basket. In dark hours, you can rely on the high-quality 30 lux lighting from Contec. Of course, parts such as Fenders, a Chain Guard and a Kickstand are also included.
