

EXCELSIOR Balance bike "Retro Runner" Mod. 24

unisex, 12", grey blue

RRP: €109.95

The "Retro Runner" wheel from Excelsior is the perfect way for your kids to get started in the world of cycling. Without pedals, they'll naturally learn to balance and take their first attempts at riding.The curved top tube makes it easy to get on, while the balloon tires ensure a safe riding experience. The sturdy steel frame offers optimal control, whether your child is playing or learning.With a wide Saddle and adjustable Handlebars, the Wheel grows with your child. This not only expands their range of motion during walks but also prepares them perfectly for the transition to a children's bike.
