

CONWAY Gravel bike "GRV 4.0 SE" (#1)

diamond, 28", bronze matt, 12-speed SRAM "Apex", 53 cm / L

RRP €1,699.95

Gravel roads, forests and gentle hills - the "Conway GRV 4.0 SE" is the perfect entry-level bike for every gravel ride. With its lightweight aluminum frame and 28" wheels, you can effortlessly master any terrain. The 1x12 SRAM "Apex" derailleur offers you a precise and versatile gear ratio - ideal for steep climbs and fast descents. The mechanical Disc Brakes provide reliable braking power, while the sporty geometry enables an efficient riding position. With a permissible total weight of 130 kg, the bike is suitable for a wide range of gravel bikes. The Schwalbe "G-One Comp" tires in 40 mm width are a particular highlight. These tires offer you excellent grip on loose surfaces and are still fast on the road. The continuous three-ply carcass also ensures very good puncture protection, which gives you additional safety on your tours.
