

AXA Battery LED Rear Light "Compactline"

black

Price: 10,29 €

Be seen in a sporty way The "Compactline" Battery Rear Light from AXA is characterized by the fact that it is small and bright. This compact LED Rear Light offers a sporty look and can be easily recharged using the USB Cables supplied. The light is easy to mount on the bike and easy to transport. The flexible rubber mounting strap makes "Compactline" suitable for almost any bike. The Battery provides up to 10 hours of light when charged. The charging time is less than 2 hours. In addition, the service life of 1,000 is quite long. This means that this rear light can hold its own against the usual batteries. Thanks to the powerful LED, you are always clearly visible both from behind and from the side at a distance of up to 300 m. The Compactline works at temperatures between -10 and 40°C, even in rain and snow.
