RRP: 149,99 €

Your smart Bike Computer with altimeterThe CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" is the ideal training partner for your next challenge.The smart Bike Computer with altimeter is primarily aimed at ambitious amateur riders and helps you to achieve your training goals. In combination with the "KOMOOT" app, the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" gets you safely and reliably from A to B.The Bike Computer with altimeter is there to support you on demanding bike tours. Thanks to the barometric altitude measurement, the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" calculates the altitude independently using the air pressure. Compared to a GPS measurement, this gives you more accurate and uninterrupted values. With numerous detailed features, such as the current and maximum vario or the incline function, the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" will quickly become an indispensable must-have for all outdoor enthusiasts. In combination with the "KOMOOT" app, all navigation instructions are transferred to the display of the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2".And the best thing about it: when you buy a CICLOSPORT "HAC", the world package of the KOMOOT app is already included. The Bike Computer with altimeter not only gets you safely to your destination, but is also always by your side as you discover new routes. Let the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" inspire you and navigate you to the most beautiful viewpoints in your area. If your smartphone runs out of power, the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" continues to record all data and saves it so you can easily transfer the data to your smartphone at home later. The battery of the robust CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" does not run out quickly. The Bike Computer with altimeter has a battery life of up to 5 months. Thanks to the Speed Sensor, you can also check your speed without a smartphone connection. Whether through the city, in the countryside or off-road on a cross bike, with the CICLOSPORT "HAC 1.2" you are guaranteed never to lose track and always have your training data in view.
