

Dr. Wack Chain Oil "F100 Kettenöl"

10ml plastic tube

RRP: 2,99 €

For all parts to be lubricated on bikesThe chains and other moving parts of MTBs, road bikes etc. are often subjected to a great deal of stress. In addition, environmental influences such as rain and dirt reduce the ease of movement of moving parts and accelerate wear and corrosion. Guaranteed extremely smooth running of all moving parts thanks to PTFE additive- Maximum wear protection- Special polymers reduce metal friction to a minimum = perfect lubrication- Significantly reduces the amount of force required- Top corrosion protection- High creep and adhesion effect- Significantly reduces noise development of the chains
