

GAADI Tube

DV, 35mm

RRP: 11,99 €

One Tube, 2 ends, many advantagesAre you out of air? Or at least your tires? Gaadi will quickly get you and your bike rolling again. Because with GAADI, changing an inner tube is child's play. And you don't even have to get your hands dirty. The highlight is that the GAADI bicycle inner tube has 2 ends. Instead of laboriously removing the wheels or chain boxes, you simply insert the innovative, open tube into the casing. Even complex Shifter, Brake or drive systems are no problem for the GAADI inner tube. Whether you're doing sport, riding in your free time or on your way to work, you can change your inner tube quickly and easily in the event of a flat tire. Without a lot of tools. Without injuries. Without dirt. The GAADI inner tube also provides a quick remedy for punctures on an e-bike or pedelec.
