

RIXEN & KAUL Handlebar Bag "Daypack Box"

black, incl. KLICKfix handlebar adapter

RRP: 71,65 €

Practical in a boxThe "Daypack Box" is a practical handlebar bag that is clamped to the "Handlebar Adapter universal" with the box made of glass fiber-reinforced polyamide. When the tour is over, the Bag can then be folded flat. The Bag is well organized for tours with its large main compartment, front pocket, document compartment and map pocket. The transparent Map Cover on the top of the bag is made for maps up to 24 x 27 cm and is fastened with Press Buttons. The Rain Cover can be easily removed from the extra compartment at the back. The Bag can then be easily shouldered using the strap when strolling around town. It weighs 800 g itself and can be loaded with a weight of 3 kg, which can be distributed over the total of 8 liters. Dimensions: 22 cm x 16 cm x 26 cm.
