

Selle SMP Saddle "Hybrid Gel"

black

RRP: 129,00 €

Ergonomic & flexible to useAlways the right choice: the "Hybrid Gel" from SELLE SMP. It is made for use on a road bike or MTB as well as for daily commuting or single speed. The soft foam padding with gel gives you an extra high level of comfort on this unisex saddle handmade in Italy, which also adapts to your anatomy.The SMP4BIKE design with its lowered saddle nose and ventilation channel provides pressure relief in sensitive areas of the body. The hollow at the rear of the saddle protects the coccyx from bruises that can occur on bumpy ground. The Saddle Base is made of stainless steel, the lower shell of nylon with carbon reinforcement. The carbon fiber provides extra cushioning on bumpy roads or rough asphalt. Weight: 360 g, dimensions: L275xW140 mm.
