

SIGMA SPORT Bike Computer "Topline BC 16.16"

wireless (STS)

RRP: 59,95 €

Bike computer for commutersSIGMA SPORT has consistently designed the "Topline BC 16.16" for commuters and frequent riders. It provides information on all possible bike computer data as well as the estimated time of arrival and the remaining distance to the destination. Particularly useful for commuters: every kilometer counted is also converted into fuel savings.In addition to the overall values, the bike computer also displays statistics for the past twelve months. Using NFC (Near Field Communication) and the SIGMA Link app (Android), the data can also be accessed wirelessly on a smartphone.The STS version of the "Topline BC 16.16" is also available with an optional cadence transmitter. Dimensions: Height x width x depth: 52 mm x 37.5 mm x 11.5 mm.
