

AXA Folding Lock "Fold Lite Code"

black

RRP: 77,95 €

Security and convenience come together in the AXA "Fold Lite Code" foldable locks. With a length of 100 cm, the lock offers the perfect balance between flexibility and robustness to protect your bike. AXA has given this lock a safety index of 7 (out of 15). The lock therefore offers good security and you can leave your bike locked up for longer periods in busier places with confidence.The outstanding feature of this lock is the 4-digit code, which allows you to create a personal security combination without the need for a key. The 5 mm thick bars of the lock provide solid security, while the soft coating prevents scratches on your bike, so it always remains in perfect condition.Installation is effortless thanks to the 2 mounting straps that securely attach the Lock to the Frame or Bottle Cage. No more lugging it around - your Lock is always ready to hand when you need it.
