

fi'zi:k Saddle "Aeris Long Distance Adaptive"

R3, ki:um

RRP 259,00 €

The Fizik saddle "Aeris Long Distance Adaptive" in black is the perfect choice for triathletes looking for a lightweight and comfortable saddle. With a generous cut-out, this saddle offers excellent comfort and pressure relief, even on long distances. The no-suspension design ensures a direct connection to the bike and maximum efficiency with every pedal stroke. With a width of 135 mm and the use of high-quality carbon for the cover and scarves, the saddle is not only lightweight but also extremely robust. The unisex design makes it versatile for all cyclists.
